

EDINBURGH UNIVERSITY MUSICAL SOCIETY

Performance of
"THE SEASONS".....Josef Haydn

by
The E.U.M.S. Choir
Full Orchestra

Leader.....Dr. John Fairbairn
Conductor.....Professor Sidney Newman

Soloists:

Miss Isabel Dall : Mr. Tom Jardine
Mr. Ian Pitt Watson

Wednesday, 21st January, 1948, at 7-30 p.m., at the Pollock Hall, Marshall Street.

---

We cordially invite the support of members of the University Teaching Staff for this Concert. This work was last performed in Edinburgh some years before the war by Sir Donald Tovey. It is an enterprise of some magnitude involving not inconsiderable expense with regard to the orchestra required. During recent years the Society's Choir has performed several major works in collaboration with the Reid Choir at Reid Concerts or University Orchestral Concerts. The forthcoming concert, however, is the Society's own undertaking, and we feel that the Society may take some pride in the fact that on this occasion two of its members are appearing as solo artists.

Tickets, (prices 5/- and 2/6) may be had on application by post (enclosing remittance and stamped addressed envelope) to the Hon. Secretary, Miss Muriel Paul, 24 Inchview Terrace, Edinburgh 7.

May we ask you also to make mention of this Concert to your friends ?

W. F. Morrison Dorward: President
Sidney Newman: Hon. Conductor.

---